

3rd International Conference
Education for Sustainable Development:
Graduates as Global Citizens
10 - 11 September 2009, Bournemouth University

Programme

10 th September 2009
10.00 – 10.25	Registration : Poole House Main Reception Coffee : Refectory
Plenary (Allsebrook Lecture Theatre)
10.30 – 10.45 10.45 – 11.00	Welcome: David Willey – Deputy Vice Chancellor, Bournemouth University Chris Shiel – Director, The Centre for Global Perspectives
11.00 – 11.45 11.45 – 12.30	Keynote: Stephen Sterling, Schumacher Reader in Education for Sustainability, Centre for Sustainable Futures (CSF). Keynote: Ann Finlayson, Director, SEED – Sustainability and Environmental Education
12.30 – 13.25	Lunch : Refectory
Concurrent sessions
	Room – PG141	Room – PG142	Room – PG143
SESSION 1 13.30 – 14.10	Internationalisation of the curriculum: towards an inclusive framework Elizabeth Grant & Brigitte Picot	Climate Squad – youth volunteering opportunities on climate change Lisa Stroud	Embedding course content to improve student awareness of sustainable development and related employability issues Lindsey Atkinson, Neil Gordon, Steven Hanson & Tony Taylor
	Room – PG146	Room – PG22
SESSION 2 14.15 – 14.55	Embedding International Development Perspectives at the University of Ulster Roisin McEvoy & Neil Alldred	Sustainable Conservation: The Role of Heritage in Sustainable Development Katherine Neustadt
14.55 – 15.10	Coffee and Refreshment : Refectory
SESSION 3 15.10 – 15.40	Speed Networking: Understanding Each Other (Refectory)
SESSION 4 15.45 – 16.25	Global Citizenship as Lived Experience: A model and voices from the field – Jo Appleton, Heather Buchanan & David Killick (Café Style Discussion) – PG142/143/144
Concurrent sessions
	Room – PG146	Room B – PG22
SESSION 5 16.30 – 17.10	Developing International Managers – Reflections on 10 years of Teaching Cross-Cultural Capability in the Business School Mark Ridolfo	Curriculum, Construct and Developing Cultural Intelligence: The added value dimension of post-graduate international education Lynne Powell
Plenary (Coyne Lecture Theatre, Thomas Hardy Suite)
17.10 – 17.20	Summary of the Day / Departure to Hotels

For those attending the Conference dinner, arrangements are:

19.00 for 20.00 Conference Dinner at The Marsham Court Hotel

3rd International Conference
Education for Sustainable Development:
Graduates as Global Citizens
10 - 11 September 2009, Bournemouth University

Programme

11 th September 2009
Plenary (Allsebrook Lecture Theatre)
9.00 – 9.45	Keynote : David Killick, Head, International Programmes, Leslie Silver International Faculty, Leeds Metropolitan University
9.45 –10.15	Keynote : Espen Berg, Founder/ CEO, United Youth Development Organization (UYDO)
Concurrent Sessions
	Room – PG10	Room – PG22
SESSION 6 10.20 – 11.00	Developing students as global citizens through the experience of transnational education: an achievable aim or limited concept? Jan Bamford	Promoting poverty aware procurement on campus Jimmy Brannigan
11.00 - 11.15	Coffee : Refectory
	Room – PG10	Room – PG22
SESSION 7 11.20 – 12.00	Greening Business: Giving graduates the skills to improve environmental performance in their future workplaces Zoe Robinson	Preaching to the converted: Developing International awareness through student volunteering, community engagement and employability Fiona Boyle, Elaine Ritch & Louise Stratton
SESSION 8 12.05 – 12.45	Student Volunteering in Developing Countries: Neo-Colonial or building a humanising global civil society? Anna Mdee & Liam Fee	Students Taking the Lead: a student-centred approach to creating participatory learning experiences around sustainable development within the informal curriculum Sheri-Leigh Miles
12.45 – 13.40	Lunch : Refectory
SESSION 9 13.50 – 14.30	Ken-ya Believe It? Enhancing the Global Student Experience through Sport for Development: a Case Study of sportBU's Kenya Sports Development Expedition— Barry Squires (Allsebrook Lecture Theatre)
	Room – PG10	Room – PG22
SESSION 10 14.35 – 15.15	Empowering pre-service teachers for sustainability knowledge construction and transformative pedagogy Nelly Koustoulas-Makrakis	Rethinking Early Education and Health -- The Finnish Perspective Mabel Ann Brown
SESSION 11 15.20 – 16.00	The Sustainability of UK Post-Colonial social work practice learning opportunities in Malaysia Jonathan Parker, Sara Asehnaen Crabtree & Gillian Calvin Thomas	Getting the sustainability message across: the power of emotive imagery Harriet Sjerps-Jones
Plenary (Coyne Lecture Theatre, Thomas Hardy Suite)
16.00 – 16.30	Summary – Chris Shiel Closing – Coffee & Refreshments	