

Bournemouth University

Centre of Postgraduate Medical Research & Education
Pioneering progress in the field of medicine

Programme

Tuesday 21 September

Allsebrook Lecture Theatre, Poole House, Talbot Campus

Accredited GP Education and CPD-approved.

Correspondence to: Audrey Dixon, Administrator, Centre of Postgraduate Medical Research & Education
School of Health & Social Care, 5th Floor Royal London House, Christchurch Road, Bournemouth BH1 3LT

Tel: +44 (0)1202 962782 Fax: +44 (0)1202 962218 Email: copmre@bournemouth.ac.uk

www.bournemouth.ac.uk/copmre

9am Registration and coffee

Morning – Showcasing local research excellence

- 9.30am Welcome
Professor Gail Thomas Dean, School of Health & Social Care (HSC), Bournemouth University (BU)
- 9.35am CoPMRE
Professor Paul Thompson Director, Centre of Postgraduate Medical Research & Education (CoPMRE), HSC, BU & Consultant Rheumatologist, Poole Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
- 9.40am Comparison of four tests of cognition as predictors of ability to acquire metered dose inhaler technique in old age
Professor Steve Allen Consultant Physician, Royal Bournemouth Hospital & Visiting Professor, BU
- 9.55am Sustained reversal of type 2 diabetes following 16-months lifestyle programme
Anita Bowes Research Obesity & Diabetes Specialist Dietitian, RBCH NHS Foundation Trust
- 10.10am Type-C p53-pathway dysfunction resulting from the presence of an emerging TP53 dysfunctional subclone in CLL
Ian Tracy PhD Student, BU
- 10.25am Optimised measurement of cardiovascular autonomic response and the assessment of changes in autonomic tone resulting from inflammatory response to immunisation
Dr Steve Perring Clinical Scientist, Poole Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
- 10.40am Patient safety and adverse events in theatre: The voice of the surgeon
Professor Colin Pritchard Research Professor in Psychiatric Social Work, HSC, BU, and Emeritus Professor, School of Medicine, University of Southampton
- 10.55am Tea/coffee break/networking
- 11.25am Keynote address
Hypoglycemia prevents the favourable increase in myocardial blood flow reserve induced by insulin in type 1 diabetes and in healthy humans
Professor Kim Greaves Consultant Cardiologist and Specialist in Cardiac Imaging Clinical Lead for Cardiology, Poole Hospital NHS Trust and Visiting Professor, BU
- 11.55am Consequences of living without facial expression
Professor Jonathan Cole Consultant in Clinical Neurophysiology, Poole and Salisbury Hospitals, Visiting Professor, BU & Honorary Senior Lecturer in Clinical Neurosciences, University of Southampton
- 12.10pm Metabolism and cancer
Professor Tamas Hickish Consultant Medical Oncologist, Poole Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, RBCH NHS Foundation Trust, Executive member Western CLRN, Visiting Professor, CoPMRE, HSC
- 12.25pm Enhanced recovery programmes
Mr Robert Middleton Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon, Poole Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, RBCH NHS Foundation Trust & Visiting Fellow, BU
- 12.40pm Lunch break/networking

Afternoon – Human factors education – a consideration for Dorset?

- 2pm Welcome
Jane Reid CoPMRE, BU, Clinical Advisor NPSA & President IFPN
- 2.05pm FY2 Teaching in Dorset – Professional skills and human factors
Dr Mike Masding Consultant Physician, Poole Hospital NHS Foundation Trust & Visiting Fellow, BU
- 2.15pm How human factors education can support the healthcare agenda in Dorset
Jane Reid Centre of Postgraduate Medical Research & Education Faculty
- 2.20pm Elaine's story: A powerful case for change?
Martin Bromiley Chair Clinical Human Factors Group
- 2.50pm Human factors awareness: Delivering service improvement in surgery
Mr Mark Emerton Fellow NHS III, Clinical Advisor NPSA, Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon Leeds Teaching Hospitals
- 3.15pm Tea/Coffee
- 3.30pm HF ROI: Improved care and cost savings
Dr Matt Inada-Kim Consultant Emergency Medical Assessment Unit Winchester & Eastleigh NHS Trust
- 3.55pm Hard work and vigilance: Necessary but insufficient : The role of human factors in general practice
Dr Richard Jenkins Associate in Safer Care and Leadership Improvement & Faculty Fellow, NHS Institute for Innovation and Improvement
- 4.15pm Panel discussion
- 4.45pm Close
Professor Paul Thompson