

Opportunity C – International remote internships with selected providers

Take part in a career-focused international remote internship programme from selected providers. You should research each organisation to ensure that the programme is a good match for your future career aspirations and goals. You will need to outline in your application which organisation you have selected, so please choose carefully. 10 spaces are available to BU students.

Find out more about the providers below:

Virtual Internships

Start date: You will be given the choice of duration and start date to fit your schedule. Internship duration ranges from one to four months starting before 1 September 2021, with options for 10 to 30 hours per week for a minimum of 120 hours.

Scholarship fund: If successful the full cost of a remote internship with Virtual Internships will be covered by the Santander Scholarship.

As part of a global cohort of students you will work with a dedicated internship coach and career development expert. You'll attend global employability webinars and start working towards your Global Career Management Plan and Certification. You will have access to Virtual Internships' award-winning Professional Development Hub which includes access to their accredited Global Internship Curriculum to help you prepare for your internship and beyond.

Find out more on the Virtual Internships website.

Pagoda Projects

Start date: Eight-week programme starting on 5 July 2021 and ending 27 August 2021.

Scholarship fund: If successful, the Santander Scholarship will fully fund the cost of the Pagoda Projects' eight-week programme.

Pagoda Projects is an award-winning organisation offering remote internships with organisations based in Australia, China, Germany, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand, South Korea, Taiwan, and Vietnam. Successful applicants have over 200 organisations to choose from and Pagoda will ensure you are matched to an appropriate partner based on your skill set, subject area, and motivations. You will also benefit from their digital skills programme, further networking opportunities and detailed post programme feedback. This organisation is best suited if your BU degree and career aspirations are in the areas of Business, Sales & Marketing, IT/Tech, NGOs, Education or Design.

Find out more on the Pagoda Projects website.

The Intern Group (TIG)

Start date: Choose remote internships ranging from four and 24 weeks, and between 10 to 40 hours per week.

Scholarship fund: If successful, the Santander Scholarship will offer a contribution of £870 towards a remote internship starting before 1 September 2021. The full programme fee is US $1,700 (approx. £1,235 at the current exchange rate) but will be reduced to $1,200 (£870) if you are receiving a maintenance loan of over £7,700 per year.

The Intern Group (TIG) organise internships for all academic and career fields with large, small and medium-sized businesses and entrepreneurial start-ups. TIG's internship programmes offer a flexible remote internship as well as the opportunity to learn from business leaders as part of their keynote speaker series. In addition to career advancement training and CV improvement, you'll be a part of a global network and community with 24-7 support for your internship and wellbeing.

Find out more at The Intern Group website

Intern Abroad HQ

Start date: Customisable options to choose from including a 100-hour internship (three weeks full-time or five weeks part time)

Scholarship fund: Santander will fund scholarships for students who start before 1 September 2021. If successful, the scholarship will cover the cost of the 100-hour programme. Intern HQ also offers other options including a 250-hour internship (eight weeks full-time or 12 weeks part-time), for which the scholarship will fund a contribution up to £870; any additional costs would be your responsibility to pay.

Choose from career-focused international remote internship programmes in Europe, Asia and Africa. Internships are project-based, and interns are supported by supervisors within their host organisation as well as supported by Intern Abroad HQ in their personal development.

Find out more on the Intern HQ website

Apply for category C – International remote internships with selected providers

Full details including eligibility criteria and how to apply are available on the BU website.

If you have any questions or require further information please contact the Global Engagement Mobility Team at Internationalgrants@bournemouth.ac.uk.