

Previous delegates and presenters have said have said :

A fabulous conference. I leave this day feeling nurtured...., inspired refreshed... glad to be human

I feel I have found my academic home, it's a new home and I don't know where everything is or where to put my 'stuff', but it feels like home

It all fits! So much lovely work is happening.

The threads come together and support this work/idea/way of being.

Loved hearing others' stories and work in action

Thank-you for inviting me to participate –these are very powerful events
