Below the header is a red navigation bar with links: Accommodation, Employability, Facilities and campuses, Graduate and student stories, Fusion, Local area, Student life, Clubs and societies, BU Events, and To learn is to change. Below this is a breadcrumb trail: Home / Why BU? / Accommodation / Bookings, costs and contracts / How to book accommodation. The main heading is "How to book accommodation".

The screenshot shows the "Stage 1: Register your interest in accommodation (September 2023)" page. It features a yellow header with an upward arrow. The main content area is titled "September 2023" and contains text about the online Accommodation Portal opening on Tuesday 29 November 2022. It states that applicants with a Conditional Firm (CF) or Unconditional Firm (UF) offer status are invited to login to the portal to register their interest. A link to the Accommodation Guarantee is provided for further details. Below the main content are two expandable sections: "Stage 2: Choose and book your accommodation (September 2023)" and "How to complete Stage 1 & 2", both with downward arrows.

Booking process: Stage 2 (UF)

September 2024

Unconditional Offer-holders (UF):

From Tuesday 2 April 2024, as long as you have completed Stage 1 and meet the terms of the Accommodation Guarantee, you'll be able to complete Stage 2, where you choose and book your room for September 2024. All eligible applicants will be contacted by email with instructions on what to do nearer the time.

Conditional offer-holders (CF):

From Tuesday 25 June 2024, so long as you have completed Stage 1 and meet the terms of the Accommodation Guarantee, you can commence Stage 2, where you will choose and reserve a room in BU accommodation. This will hold your room for September. You will not be able to complete your booking until you meet the criteria of your course offer and your status changes to Unconditional Firm (UF). Once your offer status has changed to UF you will then be able to go on to sign your accommodation contract and pay the required funds to complete your booking.

Don't worry, in June, we will be releasing a variety of rooms from all of our accommodation options so there will be plenty to choose from.

Also don't worry, if you reserve a room but don't then meet the criteria of your course offer we will release you from your room reservation with no penalty.

- UF (Unconditional Firm) – From 2 April can choose and book a room
- A fair % of rooms from across the portfolio to choose from
- Nothing more to do
- Look out for an email from us

Information on Codes of Practice

Bournemouth University and its Partner accommodation providers (I.Q., UNITE Students, Campus Living Villages, Student Housing Company and Student Roost) subscribe to Codes of Practice for the effective management of student housing.

This means that housing will be provided which meets high standards of good practice, service and health & safety, as well as providing accommodation that is "fit for purpose".

Further information on these codes can be found at:

The Student Accommodation Code

ANUK Accreditation Network UK

Your Accommodation options

We want you to feel at home and be comfortable during your studies at BU and we know that being close to academic and leisure facilities is important. Our accommodation is within easy access of the town centres of Bournemouth and Poole, the Talbot and Lansdowne campuses. Click on the links below to find out more.

- We offer a wide range of accommodation to suit all tastes and budgets from halls of residence, Unilet Houses and shared houses on the Talbot campus (Student Village). If you have not yet reviewed your options then please do so in advance of Stage 2 when you will choose and book your room.
- For students with specific needs please visit our accessibility information page for a full list of access information.
- Our standard accommodation contracts are 40, 41 or 42 week contracts, for Undergraduate courses and 50 weeks for Postgraduate courses and a few NHS courses. For students on courses who will need to stay longer, you can arrange for a summer let nearer the time (available in selected accommodation and details supplied upon request)
- You can also find out more about our ResLifeBU programme that runs in all BU accommodation and is there to help you settle in, meet others, have fun and be supported. Visit our ResLifeBU website or join our Facebook page to be kept up-to-date with deadlines for applying for accommodation and much more.

BU Halls of Residence and UNILET
Licence to Occupy
Terms and Conditions of Residence

University process to complete booking:

- Read T&Cs (legally binding)
- Sign Licence to Occupy
- Copy sent via email (retain this)

1) Introduction

a) An offer of accommodation (an "Offer of Accommodation") may be made to you:

- i) in a letter or e-mail sent by the University to you;
- ii) in booking details posted on the University's on-line accommodation site; or
- iii) in person at the Residential Services office at the University when you sign a licence (the "Licence to Occupy").

b) If you accept your Offer of Accommodation or sign a Licence to Occupy, you have entered into a legally binding contract between the University (us) and the Student (you) (the "Licence Agreement") that incorporates:

- i) these Terms and Conditions;
- ii) the BU managed accommodation Rules and Information (the "Rules") ;
- iii) the terms and conditions of the Endsleigh Insurance Block policy; and
- iv) the terms and conditions of More buses

c) When you accept the Offer of Accommodation, you must pay the first rent payment to the University (the "First Rent Payment")

d) The following will be set out in the Offer of Accommodation or the Licence to Occupy:

- i) details of the hall of residence (the "Property");
- ii) the term of the licence (the "Licence Period");
- iii) the charges for the licence and the payment due dates (the "Licence Fee");
- iv) information about how to accept the Offer of Accommodation; and
- v) details of the amount of the First Rent Payment and how to pay it.

e) You may access your Licence to Occupy or Offer of Accommodation and these Terms and Conditions at any time by returning to your account or you may print them for your records. If you do not have access to a printer please contact the Residential Services Office at the University to request a copy.

2) Legally Binding Contract

a) You must read these Terms and Conditions and the other documents listed above and make sure you understand and agree to them before you accept the Offer of Accommodation/sign the Licence to Occupy.

b) b) When you accept the Offer of Accommodation /sign the Licence to Occupy, and provided you have not collected the keys to the Room, you have the right to cancel the Licence Agreement within 14 days without giving any reason. If you wish to cancel during the 14 day period you must tell us. You can tell us by e-mail, letter or using the model cancellation form provided on our website. You must make it clear you wish to cancel the Licence Agreement. If you have paid a First Rent Payment, the University will refund it if you cancel in the 14-day period. Please refer to clause 8b) if you have collected the keys to the Room within the 14-day period and wish to end your Licence Agreement.

Your exclusive Unibuddy Community

If you're an offer holder, you'll be invited to join BU's Official Unibuddy Community.

- ☒ Similar to a chat room, your Unibuddy Community will help you connect with other prospective students hopefully joining you in September
- ☒ You will find a list of groups ranging in themes from your chosen course to accommodation, where you can ask each other questions
- ☒ Find out what others are looking forward to and seek reassurance if there is something you are feeling nervous about
- ☒ Your Unibuddy Community is a great place for to you enjoy and get chatting!

Scan the QR code to find out more or download the 'Unibuddy Community' app from the App Store or Google Play
