

What it means to be a student on a franchised programme

As a student on a BU franchised course, the partner college where you are based will deliver your course. However, BU as the awarding institution is ultimately responsible for ensuring that the learning opportunities offered through the partner college are adequate, to enable you to achieve the academic standard required for the award.

New students
Accommodation	You will need to arrange accommodation through your college. They will be able to give you information on all the options you have. The LettingsBU service advertises private student accommodation in the Bournemouth area. BU will provide you with a council tax exception form should you require one.
Student enrolment status	As a student on a BU franchised course you will be enrolled as a BU student. Staff at your college will use the BU student records system to ensure that your details are kept up to date.
Registration and enrolment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You will receive information from us by email about how to register online and enrol. You must complete the online registration process before you can enrol on your course • You will need to show proof of your identity (passport or driving licence) and also proof of the qualifications as stated in your application. • Please be aware that you won't receive your student loan until 3-5 days after you have enrolled on your course. • After you have enrolled you will receive a BU student ID card.
Induction	Your college will make all the arrangements for your induction session. In addition to learning about your college campus and surroundings at your induction, you will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meet your tutors and support staff • Meet your BU link tutor • Understand what your course will be like • Learn what is expected of you during your studies • Learn about BU's regulations, policies and procedures • Learn what the college is responsible for, and what BU is responsible for
Partner handbook	Your college will give you a handbook or guide on the college campus and facilities. You may also get some information on the surrounding area, places to go and things to do.
Financial support
Fee payment - who you pay	Students studying full-time on BU franchised programmes pay their fees directly to the University. The BU 'Fees Policy' (under Finance on the Important Information page) is one of the policies you agreed to abide by when you accepted your place on the course.
Fee payment - liability	You remain ultimately liable for your tuition fees, regardless of whether or not someone else is paying them. It is therefore your responsibility to ensure that your fees are paid, no matter what the source of the funds - your parents, Student Loans Company, employer or any other sponsor.
Tuition fee loans	Full time undergraduate UK students (including foundation degree students) may defer payment of their tuition fees until after they have completed their course by taking out a Tuition Fee Loan. This does not need to be repaid until you have graduated and your earnings exceed the income threshold stipulated in your Loan agreement. More information on Tuition Fee Loans can be found online.

Rules and regulations
Support to study	BU is committed to the equality and inclusivity of all students and aims to facilitate and promote positive mental health and well-being through the recognition and understanding of all disabilities. However BU has duty of care to ensure the health, safety and well-being of all its students, staff and visitors via the Support to Study Policy. In exceptional cases, this may require BU to remove a student if they are deemed to be a risk either to themselves or other members of the BU community. BU encourages you to contact the appropriate service at the earliest opportunity to ensure you receive the support you need to realise your full potential and complete your studies. However, if your partner college has already has an appropriate BU-approved procedure in place, this may be used. At all times BU aims to support you and your decision making as to when to engage with your studies. Following any period of suspension from BU under this policy, it may be appropriate for you to return to resume your studies on receipt satisfactory medical evidence. This should be from a GP or relevant health professional who has enough knowledge of your circumstances to be able to make an informed decision. Visit BU's Important information page – conduct and welfare section to read more about this policy.
Fitness to practise	The Fitness to Practise Policy relates to any student's health, conduct and/or performance which may impact upon their fitness for professional practise. Allegations or evidence of failure by students to maintain standards appropriate to professional practise due to reasons of health, conduct or performance may fall into one of the following categories: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Health or related issues impacting upon a students' ability to practise • Behaviour or practise which is dangerous or damaging to the welfare of others or creates unacceptable risk to others regardless of whether this is due to health, conduct or performance reasons • Serious misconduct or unethical behaviour • Persistent shortcomings in behaviour in relation to practise • Bringing the profession into disrepute The procedure takes into account the requirements of relevant professional codes of conduct set by the appropriate professional and regulatory bodies. Visit BU's Important information page – conduct and welfare section to read more about this policy. However, if your partner college has already has an appropriate BU-approved procedure in place, this may be used.
