Our courses

All of our LLB courses are Qualifying Law Degrees (QLDs), which means you can progress straight onto the Legal Practice Course (LPC) to become a solicitor. We are one of the few UK institutions to offer QLDs that incorporate a year-long placement in the legal sector, allowing you to gain valuable experience before you graduate. We offer the following undergraduate courses within the Department of Law:

- LLB (Hons) Business Law
- LLB (Hons) Entertainment Law
- LLB (Hons) Law
- LLB (Hons) Law with Economics
- LLB (Hons) Law & Taxation
- BA (Hons) Law Top- Up

Why Specialise ?

Business Law – Focuses on the legal implications of business and the skills that employers are looking for in that context, including, commercial awareness, initiative and good communication.

Entertainment Law – Niche specialism in the area of media regulation and drawing on the departments leading expertise in the area of Intellectual Property Law.

Law & Taxation: Focuses on the rules, policies and laws that oversee the tax process, which involves charges on estates, transactions, property, income, licenses and more by the government and which draws on our tax expertise in the area.

Law & Economics: Economic theory serves as a rationale for the law and its development. Students gain an understanding of that relationship, as well as of another discipline alongside the study of a qualifying law degree

A great place to live...

We are in a great location, so Bournemouth is a great place to study and live.

There is plenty for students to do off-campus; with fantastic beaches and water-sports opportunities, including Poole Harbour (the largest in Europe), the Bournemouth International Centre, numerous cinemas, health clubs, and shopping centres - all of this and BU is only two hours from
