

Preparation for the Practice Supervisor and Assessor Role

Programme September 2023-24

Do you support learners completing practice placements?

Would you like to know more?

We all remember our first day on placement; being made to feel welcome was vital to becoming part of the team. Practice placement is essential for professional development. A reflection of our interprofessional working and changing educational opportunities, practice supervisors and assessors are essential in supporting the professional development of the future workforce.

These interprofessional study days will help you to develop an understanding of the practice supervisor and assessor roles (NMC 2018; HCPC 2017). These are interactive days so come prepared to share your knowledge and experience.

Pre-requisites

Both days are available to all Health and Social Care Registrants. It is relevant for all practitioners supporting learners in the workplace. The Practice Supervisor Day must have been completed prior to attending the Practice Assessor Day
